

WEDDINGS IN VIRGINIA

Trinity Church, in Louisa County, the scene of a beautiful Tableau Marriage.

MR. DEW AND MISS HOLLADAY

Miss Sallie Nell Hamlett becomes the Bride of Mr.

W. E. Scott.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLADAY, VA., November 26.—Trinity Church, in Louisa County, was never the scene of a more interesting event than on Wednesday morning, November 26th, when Mr. Philip A. Dew, of Penola, Va., and Miss Sallie Nell Hamlett, of Louisa County, were united in marriage.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

The church was tastefully and artistically decorated with evergreens, and a large audience of the most prominent people in social life were present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Mary Dew, the sister of the groom, presided at the organ and rendered beautiful wedding music with fine effect. The bride and groom entered the church in the following order:

The ushers, Messrs. William E. Holladay and Frank J. Holladay, the bridesmaids and groomsmen, the ladies entering by the aisle on the right, and the gentlemen on the left. Miss Martha Victoria Harris and Mr. J. J. Holladay, Mr. Dillard, Miss Mary Augusta Holladay, and Mr. Don E. Young, Miss Eva Elam and Mr. John Frederick Harris, Miss Louisa Virginia Harris and Mrs. James Minor Holladay, Miss Addie J. Cowherd and Mr. George Tyler, Mr. William E. Holladay and Mr. W. T. Ratcliffe, Miss Flora M. Cowherd and Mr. Raleigh Travers Conway, Miss Mary Littlepage Conway and Mr. George Tyler.

You Can WINNERS

at any day in the week scores of the most critical dressers in Richmond finding complete satisfaction in and adopting the Burk clothing. What is the advantage of others should be likewise to yours. Think it over.

Choice Suits,

$7.50 to $25.00

Choice Overcoats,

$7.50 to $30.00

BURK & CO.,

1003 E. Main.

also with his brother, Mr. W. O. Bristol.

The church was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums, pink and white being the dominant color. Mendelsohn's wedding march was sweetly rendered as a recessional.

Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate supper was served at the home of the bride.

Among those who attended from a distance were:

Mrs. J. B. Owen, of Franklin, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Simpson, of E. Va.; Mr. J. B. Dalos, of Ivor, Va.; Miss Eunice B. Williams, of Southern Female College, Petersburg; Mr. J. W. Williams, bailiff of the State Corporation Commission, an uncle of the bride, and others.

The presents were numerous and handsome. Mr. and Mrs. Bristol will be at home at Franklin, Va., after December 1st.

Brockwell—Walsh.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 26.—Mr. Percy Thomas Brockwell and Miss Jennie Pearson Walsh were married this morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Brockwell, 1003 E. Main.

The bride, tall, slender and graceful, looked sweet and beautiful in a white dress of tulle and lace, with a white veil and a white bouquet. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Holladay, the maid of honor, wore a dress of gray and white, with a white veil and a white bouquet. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were very fair and lovely in white organdies, with white ribbons. They carried bouquets of ferns and white chrysanthemums.

Leaving the church the bridal party proceeded down the right aisle in reversed order. From the church the party proceeded to Mineral, where they took the train for Penola, near which village the couple will reside. An elaborate reception was expected to follow on Wednesday night at the residence of the groom.

Among the guests from a distance were Miss Mary Dew, of Penola; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peyton Cowherd, of Norfolk; and Mrs. Don E. Young, of Gordonsville.

Scott—Hamlet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MADISONVILLE, VA., Nov. 26.—Mr. W. E. Scott and Miss Sallie Nell Hamlett were married in Oak View Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The bride, tall, slender and graceful, looked sweet and beautiful in a white dress of tulle and lace, with a white veil and a white bouquet. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Holladay, the maid of honor, wore a dress of gray and white, with a white veil and a white bouquet. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were very fair and lovely in white organdies, with white ribbons. They carried bouquets of ferns and white chrysanthemums.

Leaving the church the bridal party proceeded down the right aisle in reversed order. From the church the party proceeded to Mineral, where they took the train for Penola, near which village the couple will reside. An elaborate reception was expected to follow on Wednesday night at the residence of the groom.

Among the guests from a distance were Miss Mary Dew, of Penola; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peyton Cowherd, of Norfolk; and Mrs. Don E. Young, of Gordonsville.

Skinner—White.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 26.—Mr. Walter W. Skinner, of Washington, and Miss Annie White, of Fredericksburg, were married at 2 P. M. today, and the ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's parents, at 8 o'clock, Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, of the Baptist Church, officiating.

The bride, tall, slender and graceful, looked sweet and beautiful in a white dress of tulle and lace, with a white veil and a white bouquet. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Holladay, the maid of honor, wore a dress of gray and white, with a white veil and a white bouquet. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were very fair and lovely in white organdies, with white ribbons. They carried bouquets of ferns and white chrysanthemums.

Leaving the church the bridal party proceeded down the right aisle in reversed order. From the church the party proceeded to Mineral, where they took the train for Penola, near which village the couple will reside. An elaborate reception was expected to follow on Wednesday night at the residence of the groom.

Among the guests from a distance were Miss Mary Dew, of Penola; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peyton Cowherd, of Norfolk; and Mrs. Don E. Young, of Gordonsville.

Mr. Cutler's Funeral.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LOUISA, VA., Nov. 26.—The funeral service over the remains of the Rev. Mr. Cutler was conducted from the Christian Church at 3 P. M. today, and the interment was made in the town cemetery.

The church was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums, pink and white being the dominant color. Mendelsohn's wedding march was sweetly rendered as a recessional.

Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate supper was served at the home of the bride.

Among those who attended from a distance were:

Mrs. J. B. Owen, of Franklin, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Simpson, of E. Va.; Mr. J. B. Dalos, of Ivor, Va.; Miss Eunice B. Williams, of Southern Female College, Petersburg; Mr. J. W. Williams, bailiff of the State Corporation Commission, an uncle of the bride, and others.

The presents were numerous and handsome. Mr. and Mrs. Bristol will be at home at Franklin, Va., after December 1st.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Nothing Against Character of Mr. Gattis Except That He Has Lawsuit.

BISHOP LEADS THE SINGING

Difference and Reconciliation Over Question of Taking Collection for Brevard School.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GOLDSBORO, N. C., Nov. 26.—Bishop Candler led the hymn, "Come, Ye That Love the Lord," at the opening of the second day's session of the North Carolina Conference this morning.

Rev. N. M. Watson was elected a member of the Board of Trustees of the conference to succeed Rev. B. R. Hall, deceased.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

On resuming the call of the twentieth question, the name of T. J. Gattis was called, and Dr. Moore, the presiding elder of the district in which Mr. Gattis resides, arose and said he would have to return the same answer that had been returned for the past two years, to-wit: "That there was nothing against Brother Gattis' character, except that he has a lawsuit against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and other members of the conference."

Dr. Wood reported that Mr. Gattis was in feeble health. The same relations that Mr. Gattis now bears to the conference was continued. Dr. Wood stated that he expected to be able to present a letter from Mr. Gattis to the conference, but he had not received the letter.

NEW DEACONS.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was received and referred to the Committee on Church Extension.

MUNYON'S PAW-PAW

Keeps Out and Drives Out CATARRH

Paw-Paw Makes the Stomach

Well, Makes Pure Blood and Cures

DYSPEPSIA

Paw-Paw Will Cure Catarrh of the Head, Catarrh of the Stomach, Catarrh of the Liver and Will

MAKE YOU WELL

Catarrh is a National Disease. It affects the head, throat, Kidney, Stomach and Liver, through acute or chronic inflammation of the membranes and tissues. In its train and because of its inroads on the system, follows Consumption and other fatal diseases.

A person that has good digestion and pure blood never has Catarrh. Therefore the remedy that will cure Catarrh is a good stomach and blood.

In condition will surely cure Catarrh. There is not a mail but what brings me testimonials from people that have been cured from long-standing chronic cases of Catarrh by the use of my Paw-Paw.

Dr. Atkins, of the Western North Carolina Conference, was introduced, and said that he had been requested by Miss Belle Bennett and other ladies of his conference to make an appeal to the conference in behalf of the Brevard Epworth School. Dr. Atkins called for volunteer contributions for some time, and Mr. Gibbs arose and said that at least three presiding elders thought that the collection for the Brevard School should not be pressed just ahead of the Methodist Epiphany. He and Dr. Atkins, however, had not helped the orphanage as much as they should.

After this the collection began to drag and Dr. Atkins said that the injection of another question into the matter had probably had to do with the shortage of the collection.

POINT OF ORDER.—This statement caused Dr. Gibbs to rise to a point of order. He said that two other presiding elders had suggested what he had just said about the Methodist Epiphany. He said Dr. Atkins was engaged in an argument with the bishop. Dr. Kilgo was recognized when Dr. J. C. Kilgo made some explanation that brought about a reconciliation between Dr. Gibbs and Dr. Atkins. The collection was proceeded with, and $500 was raised for the Brevard Epworth School for the education and training of the young women of the mountain region.

After the announcement of committee meetings by the secretary the bishop announced that the hour for a Thanksgiving sermon had arrived, which was put down at 11 o'clock in the proceedings of yesterday's session.

The precious office of St. Paul's Church was thronged to standing room only, and a number of people were turned away from the doors because there was no room on the inside. The missionary address, which the bishop delivered last night in St. Paul's Church, proved so very interesting and was such a gem of oratory as to cause his reputation as a speaker to be well known throughout the city before the conference hour this morning, and all during the conference proceedings people flocked to the church in large numbers to hear the Thanksgiving sermon by the bishop.

After the sermon the bishop delivered a sermon on the subject of "The Christian's Duty," which was also very interesting and was such a gem of oratory as to cause his reputation as a speaker to be well known throughout the city before the conference hour this morning, and all during the conference proceedings people flocked to the church in large numbers to hear the Thanksgiving sermon by the bishop.

After the sermon the bishop delivered a sermon on the subject of "The Christian's Duty," which was also very interesting and was such a gem of oratory as to cause his reputation as a speaker to be well known throughout the city before the conference hour this morning, and all during the conference proceedings people flocked to the church in large numbers to hear the Thanksgiving sermon by the bishop.

After the sermon the bishop delivered a sermon on the subject of "The Christian's Duty," which was also very interesting and was such a gem of oratory as to cause his reputation as a speaker to be well known throughout the city before the conference hour this morning, and all during the conference proceedings people flocked to the church in large numbers to hear the Thanksgiving sermon by the bishop.

After the sermon the bishop delivered a sermon on the subject of "The Christian's Duty," which was also very interesting and was such a gem of oratory as to cause his reputation as a speaker to be well known throughout the city before the conference hour this morning, and all during the conference proceedings people flocked